Does Your Money Help Your Community?

You who demand better streets, better sidewalks, better police and fire protection—are you doing your part towards such improvement? Not if you send money out of town—money that would have just as much buying power at home.

Every nickel you send away makes your community so much poorer, for the people who receive it do not re-invest it here. That money goes for the development of another community or city.

The Best Buying Policy

Patronize our home merchants whenever possible and you will do one of your foremost duties to your community.

B. & B. BUSINESS GROWING

Business at the B. & B. has increased so much and so much of it is phone orders, that it has become necessary to have another phone installed, and in so doing it was necessary to change the number. Now when you want to order your day's supplies of groceries, you must call Glendale 604, and if one phone is busy, "central" will connect you up to the other.

NEW BOOKS AT THE BRANCH LIBRARY

As the money available for new books just at present is very limited, the selection just made is of books that will be of very general appeal, so as to satisfy as many readers as possible. The list is as follows:

"The Great Sioux Trail," and "The Lost Hunters," by Altsheler, same Joan the girls learned to know the boys' favorite author.

"Joan's California Summer," the at Juniper Inn and in "Her Summer Vacation."

"Georgina's Service Star," the sequel to "Georgina of the Rainbow," by Mrs. Johnston.

"A Daughter of Jehu," by Laura E. Richards, who always has such a sympathetic understanding of human nature.

"The Tang of Life," by Knibbs, author of "Overland Red," another wild and woolly story.

"The City of Masks" is another story for the lovers of McCutcheon.

"The Zeppelin's Passenger," by Oppenheim, brings in the war, and has plenty of thrills and excitement.

"The Rough Road," by Locke, also deals with the war, but is a character study.

"The Sheriff's Son," by Raine, is what the title and the author imply.

Edna Ferber's "Cheerful by Request," is a collection of short stories done with her usual excellence. Her characters are true to life.

The theme of "Ghost Gardens," by Amelie Rives, is the breaking of the spell by which a beautiful young believes herself to be haunted by the spirit of one of her ancestors.

Another good mystery story is "The Mystery of Hartley House," by Raymond.

"The Golden Bird," by Daviess, is another tale of Harpeth Valley.

Mrs. Burnham gives us another excellent Christian Science story in "Heart's Haven."

Mrs. Rinehart's "Amazing Interlude" is a sweet love story with a war setting.

"Out of the Silences," by Mary E. Waller, closes the list, and all who have read her "Wood Carver of 'Lympus" will want to read this.

These books are now ready for circulation. Some new war books have also been ordered, but as they are coming from San Francisco, they will not be ready until later.

A book review will be held at the Branch Library Saturday, January 25, from 3 to 4 p. m. Some of the new books just received will be reviewed at that time.

Everyone is invited to attend.

Reviews are held at the main library on Harvard Street on Tuesdays at 1:30 p. m., to which all are welcome.

CHAS. H. CUSHING,
Branch Librarian.

QUOTA EXCEEDED

Glendale has done her part well in contributing to the relief of the sufferers of Armenia and Syria, as is shown by the fact that our quota in the drive just finished has been exceeded by a good margin, a total of $2,144.58 being subscribed. This is a showing of both patriotism and humanity, and is gratifying to all.

CALIFORNIA COMMISSION AFTER TELEPHONE COMPANY

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 21.—The State Railroad Commission issued an order today directing the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company and George E. McFarland, its president, to appear before the commission next Saturday and show cause why the commission should not investigate a proposed increase in long-distance toll rates in California.

Pending the hearing the company was ordered "immediately to desist and refrain from charging or collecting for long distance telephone services, rendered between points in California, toll rates in excess of those lawfully in effect and on file with the Railroad Commission on January 20, 1919."

The new rates, according to the commission, are those proposed as schedules issued by Postmaster-General Burleson since the government assumed control of the wires, and which were to go into effect at midnight last night.

The new rates, according to the commission, are different from and result, in many instances, in higher charges, than the rates and regulations heretofore filed with the commission.

"The Railroad Commission does not recognize these higher rates as lawful for long-distance telephone service by your company between points within the State," the commission points out in a communication to McFarland, "but, on the contrary, regards such rates as being unlawful and in violation of the Public Utilities Act."

And, while the politicians are anxiously wondering "Who fer President," there will doubtless be a strong movement for "Hoover President." We might do a lot worse, too.

PROCEEDINGS OF BOARD OF TRUSTEES

The Board assembled at 8:10 p. m., Thursday night, all members present. The minutes of the last regular meeting were read and approved.

A communication was read from James E. Barker, addressed to City Attorney W. E. Evans, stating that it is not practicable to render a complete report covering the work done by him in preparation of the case of the City of Glendale vs. the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company, before the Railroad Commission, owing to the fact that the case was removed from the commission's calendar before his work was completed. Enclosed with the same letter was a copy of a letter dated December 31, 1918, in reference to the same subject. The communication was ordered filed.

A communication was read from J. L. Pomeroy, Health Officer of Los Angeles County, addressed to City Manager Watson, accompanied by a copy of an act which the Board of Supervisors of Los Angeles County and the Committee on Sanitation, of the Grand Jury, have endorsed for enactment into law, requesting that our assemblyman be asked to interest himself in the passage of the bill. The law which the county desires enacted proposes to give to the County Health Officer supervision of the health department of incorporated cities within the county. The communication was ordered filed.

The City Manager reported in regard to the garbage matter that he had received two or three bids for this service, one from Carpi Brothers, offering to do the work for two hundred ($200.00) dollars per month; one from Mr. McLaughlin offering to do the same service for two hundred fifty ($250.00) dollars per month, and and an offer from Mr. Loudermilk to pay fifty ($50.00) dollars per month for the garbage delivered to his place between Glendale and Burbank. The Manager reported that he had figured the cost as between the proposition of Carpi Brothers and that of Mr. Loudermilk, and finds there would be very little difference between them in expense; he therefore recommended the acceptance of the bid of Carpi Brothers. On motion of Trustee Henry, it was ordered that a contract be drawn up to be entered into with Carpi Brothers (who shall furnish a $1000.00 bond) to be presented at the next meeting of the Board.

The City Manager made a report on conditions on Acacia Avenue near Central Avenue, where a sidewalk and curb had been installed without leaving any space for the parkway, making roadway communication with the street and private property difficult. No action was taken.

On motion of Trustee Shaw, action in regard to the sale of a horse owned by the City was deferred for one week.

On motion of Trustee Shaw, the City Attorney was authorized to proceed to San Francisco for the purpose of being present at the hearing before the Railroad Commission of the telephone matter, by the following roll call, all voting aye, Henry, Jackson, Muhleman, Shaw, Woodberry.

A resolution was presented appointing H. A. Eddy city engineer of the City of Glendale, which was on motion of Trustee Muhleman, seconded by Trustee Henry, adopted as Resolution No. 1062, by the following roll call, all voting aye, Henry, Jackson, Muhleman, Shaw, Woodberry.

On motion of Trustee Henry, the police department was instructed to enforce the provisions of the ordinance prohibiting the use of open mufflers on auto vehicles including motorcycles, and the practice of back firing.

Trustee Jackson offered an ordinance amending Ordinance No. 301, regulating hospitals and sanitariums, which was read and laid over for one week.

Trustee Shaw presented a statement addressed to the people of the City of Glendale by the Board of Trustees of the City, giving information as to the condition of the Public Service Department and explaining the necessity for the increase in rates to be charged for light and water, and on his motion it was ordered that the same be published in a local paper, by the following roll call, all voting aye, Jackson, Henry, Muhleman, Shaw, Woodberry.

More than the necessary number of states have ratified the national prohibitory amendment. Temperance societies are congratulating themselves, and their opponents are raging about "fanaticism," but a little study of the subject will show that fanaticism has had no more to do with the matter than has ordinary business. Prohibitionists preached the morals of the question for many years with but little success; when they convinced the people that the booze business didn't pay, things began to move with incredible swiftness.

Presidential Succession.

The law of the presidential succession, passed in 1866, expressly states that in case of the death of both president and vice president the succession shall go to the members of the cabinet, beginning with the secretary of state, but only "such as are eligible to the office of president under the Constitution." If the secretary of state was foreign born, therefore, the succession would pass over him and go to the secretary of the treasury.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Mrs. Mary Rhea entertained at luncheon Mesdames A. E. Moxley, Foster and Williamson, of Los Angeles last Wednesday. The table was centred with a basket of golden cereosis and maidenhair ferns producing a pleasing effect.

Harry Chandler and John Collage are due to arrive in New York City tomorrow from "over there." Herbert Collage, when last heard from, had not yet been ordered home.

The Atchison Barber Shop, formerly on East Park Avenue, has moved into the Henry Building on Brand Boulevard.

Corporal Noble Ripley, of te 8th Infantry writes in a recent letter to his wife, that they "have been ordered back to Brest," which is encouraging news, for in all probability it means they will soon sail for "home."

Mrs. Ellen Early and Mrs. Mary Rhea attended the funeral services of Earnest Miller last Monday at Riverside.

Mrs. Hearne Robnson and little son Teddy, of West Acacia Avenue, were week-end guests of friends in San Gabriel.

Among the recoveries from attacks of the "flu" we note Miss Mabel Gile and also the H. Melrose family, of Maryland Avenue.

Mrs. W. H. Alexander, of Maryland Avenue, who has been ill since Christmas, is improving.

Chaplain Norton, of N. P. Banks Post, G. A. R., will preach Sunday morning at the Tropico Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. W. W. Colmely, of Van Nuys, spent a few days last week with her sister, Mrs. G. M. Ballentyne, of 1236 Glendale Avenue.

Mrs. H. J. Stadler spent Tuesday at Alhambra.

Mrs. Charlie White is a busy person this week, getting the home read and preparing Eddie's favorite dishes, for they expect their son home tomorrow. Edward has been with the 143rd Field Artillery overseas, and he will have many thrilling experiences to relate.

Miss Clara Langstaff, of Long Beach, and Mrs. Annie Crane, of Los Angeles, were guests of Mrs. M. I. Baird on Saturday.

A happy dinner party, at which Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel O. Kepler presided, occurred at their home, 200 West Garfield Avenue, Sunday. Narcissus and roses were used to beautify the tastefully arranged table, and covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Hunsacker, of Hawthorne. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Becket, of West Windsor Drive, Leslie Kepler and the host and hostess.

A beautiful day, a large number of happy, congenial ladies, and a charming hostess, made the meeting of the Kensington Club last Thursday one long to be remembered by those in attendance. It occurred at the home of Mrs. Joseph Denny over on Verdugo Road. After the usual routine of business and work was accomplished, excellent refreshments were served.

Mary Ballentyne returned Tuesday from a week's visit at Van Nuys.

Born, Sunday, January 19, a son, Lynn Lloyd Rowan, Jr., to Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Lloyd Rowan, of Perlita Avenue, Atwater Tract.

The condition of Douglas Froelich, who has been so critically ill with influenza at his home on West Windsor Drive, is so encouraging that but one nurse is now in attendance. The Froelichs are new-comers in Glendale, having come from Michigan a few months ago, and Douglas, not yet 20 years of age, has made many friends here, who will rejoice to know that he is recovering from his serious illness.

Mrs. Albert Harris entertained on Wednesday Mrs. Jack Hacker, of Los Angeles, and Mrs. Laura Rider and daughter Mary, of Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. George Tauxe were made happy on the ninth, by the arrival of their second son, at their home on East Park Avenue. The two sisters, Dorothy and Barbara, and George, Jr., too, are delighted with this 9½ pound brother, who has been named Robert Warren Tauxe.

Three new subscribers this week as well as a number of renewals, testify to the popularity of the Herald. How does your subscription stand?

On New Year's Day a ten-pound girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Cy. Williams and has been named Mary Pearle. Mrs. Williams, who was Miss Blanche Pollock, of Texas, is a relative of the Clyde Carmack's.

Broadway Hendricks, of Glendale, occupies considerable space in this issue, telling our readers of the special inducements in the way of prices on muslins, etc, which he is offering for today and Monday. Hendricks' prices and goods equal Los Angeles, and then some.

Mrs. Colby and son, former residents of Atwater, visited friends on Thursday.

Jottings By The Way

By The Rambler

The Russells, on Gardena Avenue, are recovering from the "flu." Seems as if all the flu does is to flu around all over the neighborhood.

Mrs. M. Kaser, on Perlita Avenue, had a siege of it too, but is now about over it.

The Tropico people, a long-suffering and patient lot, are still hoping for better mail service. They say war and pestilence have crippled the postal service, as well as industrial institutions.

Do you believe in signs? Here's one in Burbank: "Washing done by the weak."

"Sore-head-sisters' sob-stuff" never gathers any moss.

"Barking dogs never bite" applies only to the one on the other side of the fence.

Sure, Marie, this is no humorous page, but if you see anything funny, just laugh and show your teeth. Some folks think teeth are only made to bite with. Not so's the Rambler can notice it.

The Rambler heard the other day of a man who deserves mention. He has for years lain on his back, unable to move more than one hand, utterly helpless except for an active brain. He takes subscriptions for all newspapers and magazines, and ekes out a precarious existence in that way. Anyone interested can get his name and address from the Rambler.

George Hallet, formerly superintendent of Station A of the Los Angeles post office, has been promoted to the same position at the Glendale post office, in the place of Mr. Walker, whose health forced him to change positions in the Los Angeles post office. Mr. Hallet is a clean, clear-cut and energetic young man. His past success in this line insures improved postal conditions in Glendale.

With regret we announce the death of Principal Paul W. Hopkins, of 1847 Vassar Street, which occurred on Tuesday night.

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR MRS. KATE WOODWORTH

The funeral services of Mrs. Kate Woodworth, of South Glendale Avenue were held Friday at the Scovern-Letton-Frey parlors, conducted by the Christian Science Society.

Mrs. Woodworth was 74 years of age, and had been a resident of this section for two years, sharing the home with a sister, Mrs. S. M. Harris.

A "flu" sign is on the A. H. Gaarder home on Glendale Avenue, for one of the children.

EIGHTY-EIGHTH BIRTHDAY

Samuel Parker, whose contributions, both in prose and verse, frequently appear in these columns, last Tuesday celebrated his eighty-eighth birthday anniversary. For more than thirty years it has been Mr. Parker's custom to write a poem each year in honor of the occasion, and to send copies to friends and relatives. Mr. Parker is deeply religious, and his poem this year is largely given to thanks to his Maker for the blessings that have been his during his long life, and especially for the valued friends that are his.

Mr. Parker is one of Glendale's best known and best loved citizens, and he has the well wishes of the entire community.

MISS JESSICA MOCK DEAD

Word was received here Monday of the death at Mare Island of Miss Jessica Mock, who for several years was an employee in the office of the city clerk of Glendale. The flag at the City Hall flew at half mast Tuesday in her honor. For several weeks she had been employed in the offices of the navy yard at Mare Island, but was expecting soon to return to work for her home city. Her mother was with her at the time of her death, having gone north as soon as she learned of her daughter's illness, about ten days before death came.

Miss Mock left a mother, three sisters and one brother. Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon.

Holders of United States War Savings Stamps who may have incomplete books need feel no anxiety for that reason. They will have value at maturity. The Assistant Director of Government Savings, Vernon Monroe, advises that these stamps be held and carefully preserved until they mature in 1923. The counsel often given with regard to the war savings stamps, that they be put away and temporarily forgotten, holds good also with relation to Liberty bonds. There is an evident and concerted movement among promoters of questionable enterprises to separate holders from these engravings, and this movement should be determinedly resisted.—Christian Science Monitor.

SCHOOLS OPEN MONDAY

Both the Gramar and High Schools will open in Glendale on Monday of next week. It is expected that a nurse will be employed by the School Boards. The influenza situation in Glendale seems to be well in hand at the present time.

Omar Burt Richardson has returned to Yale University after two years' service, partly in ambulance work, later in the French army, and finally in the naval aviation service of his own country. He has not been discharged from the service, and will be required to fly every two weeks during the coming summer.

The annual Press Day program of the Los Angeles W. C. T. U., given under the direction of Miss Burch on Thursday, was a great success in every way. Miss Emma Welch, of Rhode Island W. C. T. U., Mrs. Bernice Johnson and Miss Pearl Rall, of the Express staff made excellent addresses, and Mrs. Dorrington gave two fine vocal selections.

TO BE MEMBER OF EMBASSY AT BRUSSELS

Among the passengers who sailed from New York City, January 7th, bound overseas, was Miss Catherine Baird, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. I. Baird, residents of Atwater Park. Miss Baird was appointed on the staff of Major Hoffman, and goes directly to Brussels. When the war brought the demand for women to enter clerical work in Washington, Miss Baird offered her services, and for eight months held a position in the Military Intelligence Division there. Miss Baird is well qualified for the important position she now holds and the best wishes of her many many friends go with her.

Corporal Howard McGillis, of the Second Anti-Aircraft Battalion, and Private Miller Fishel arrived in Glendale last Monday morning, just having returned from service overseas.

KNIGHTS PURCHASE LOT

The Knights of Columbus have purchased a lot on Lomita Avenue for a chapter home, according to an announcement made early this week. This lot was purchased from Stanley Frentz, and is immediately adjoining the ground recently purchased by the Holy Family Church. A large residence on the lot will be remodeled for use as a chapter house.

It is announced also that a building committee is to be named tomorrow to have charge of the erection of a new church, school, parish house and convent at the corner of Lomita Avenue and Louise Street.

SCIONS OF GOOD STOCK, WHO HAVE DONE THEIR DUTY

The heart of an aged Fillmore townsman, Mr. Nelson C. Burch, has been made glad by news from three of his grandsons and a nephew, all in the army from start to finish; Captain Charles C. Stanley and Sergeants Willard Emmons Burch, Clayton Parkhill, and Willard Burch Wagner.

Captain Stanley has served as training officer at Camp Lewis from the date of its organization until a few days ago when he was discharged. He has returned to Los Angeles, where his wife and three little Stanleys were keeping the "home fires burning," reopened his law office, left vacant during his absence, and resumed his law practice.

Sergeants Willard Emmons Burch, and Willard Burch Wagner are still in the service, Sergeant Burch in Los Angeles, and Sergeant Wagner in New York City in the Quartermaster's department. Sergeant Parkhill, an expert accountant, is in Los Angeles, ready for another job.—Sun, Fillmore.

AT THE PALACE GRAND

As we announced last week, Zane Gray's "The Light of Western Stars" is the chief attraction at the Palace Grand, today, featuring Dustin Farnum.

For tomorrow, Sunday, January 26, Nazimova, that wonderful actress of both screen and stage, will be seen here in her latest picture, "Eye for Eye." This consists of seven gorgeous acts, and in addition to this there will be a comedy entitled "Love's Young Scream," and also "What Uncle Sam Will Do for Two Cents." The matinee begins at 2:30 and the evening shows at 6:45 and at 8:45.

On Monday, Enid Bennett, the little star of "The Marriage Ring" and "When do we Eat?" will appear in her latest new picture, "Fuss and Feathers." This is a story of the gold-mining camps, and she plays the part of the daughter of a prospector. Pathe News will be shown on the same program, giving us a glimpse of the big events transpiring in Europe.

On Tuesday will be given a return showing of the famous Drury Lane melodrama, "Sporting Life." Manager Jensen wishes to assure his patrons that they need not fear anything of coarseness in this picture, but that it is one that the whole family will enjoy. It is a big treat, and one that you cannot afford to miss. There will be a children's matinee at 2:30, and evening shows at 7:00 and at 8:45.

A thrilling story of the early days of the war is promised for Wednesday. The story is "The Road Through the Dark," and the star is the popular screen favorite, Clara Kimball Young. She plays the part of a beautiful French girl. There will also be a Lyons-Moran comedy. Matinee at 2:30, evening shows at 7:00 and 8:45.

"The Wildcat of Paris," with Priscilla Dean, is the feature for Thursday. This is a picturization of the Apaches of Paris, who were once the terror of certain sections of that city, and shows how they rushed to the defense of their country when the invader came, thus atoning in large measure for their former crimes. It is a wonderfully thrilling picture. The official Allied War Review will be shown on the same program, and also Topics of the Day, by the Literary Digest. Matinee at 2:30, evening shows at 7:00 and 8:45.

Sessue Hayakawa, the great Japanese character actor, will appear on Friday, in a dual role in "Bonds of Honor." This is a beautiful picture, and shows the Oriental actor at his best. Burton Holmes outdoor wonders will be shown on the same program. Matinee at 2:30.

Next Saturday, February 1, brings a treat to the lovers of the typical "Western" picture. William S. Hart, the best known of all portrayers of the "wild and woolly," will be seen on that date in "The Border Wireless." This is an exciting, fast-moving story, with plenty of punch. On the same program is Mack Sennett's latest big stunt comedy, "Hide and Seek Detectives." The matinee begins at 2:30 and the evening shows at 6:45 and 8:45.
